Service Dog Waiver

Not every dog has what it takes to be a service dog. During our Service Dog Training School, we will train your dog and evaluate your dog for service dog workability. Enrolling in this school does not automatically elevate your dog to service dog or service dog in training status.

Your dog must be free of any behavior issues that would prevent your dog from being your service dog (fear, aggression, etc). Your dog must be rock solid around people, dogs, and distractions. Service dogs are not behavioral project dogs. If your dog does have behavior issues, we will spend our time addressing those, not on service dog work.
